Class History

The history of the Class of 1950 is like a great Shakespearean drama although it has only four acts. The first act begins in September, 1946, when a small troupe of actors make their dramatic entrance upon the stage of Atkins High School.

In the first act the actors show signs of stage fright and in the Freshman-Sophomore debate three of the actors, Samuel Tucker, Marjorie Morgan and Janet Macon, tried so hard that they all fainted.

Anneize Williams, Maggie Cunningham, Willie Frances Smith and Nathaniel Wiseman win Crown and Scepter Club Honor Certificates for their outstanding academic achievements.

These freshmen participate in many activities during the first act and as the curtains close they show promise of being outstanding students.

The curtains part for act two in September, 1947. The actors are becoming more confident, bolder and wiser now that they are sophomores.

Frank Joyner, Walter Murray and James Steen demonstrate their athletic ability on the football team.

The sophomores give a sample of their dramatic talent as Aurelia Carter stars in "The Dead of Night."

Once again the academic ability of the sophomore class is shown as they dominate the Crown and Scepter Club's awards day. Those who received awards were Mildred Thornton, Maggie Cunningham, Anneize Williams, Willie Frances Smith, Nathaniel Wiseman and John Caldwell.

In intramural basketball led by Lillie Jackson, Gertie Mack and Roselle Morrison, the sophomore girls cop the school championship.

The curtains are closed on act two and the weary brain-tired actors pause for a three-month intermission.

The beginning of act three is highlighted by the election of Anneize Williams, John Caldwell, Mildred Thornton, Nathaniel Wiseman, Willie Frances Smith and Maggie Cunningham to the Crown and Scepter Club.

We hear many timely discussions on Junior Town Meeting by Frank Joyner and Joe Thompson.

Nathaniel Wiseman is elected President of the Student Council over his senior opponent. Marshall Hairston, Hazel Rhynes, and Harold Hauser are a few of the hard working members of the Student Council.

"Stranger in the Night" finds Lois Haley and Lawton Kelly making their first stage appearance. Lillie Jackson, Willie Frances Smith and Marcellus Penn receive honors for work done in "The Midnight Son" while Dwight Caldwell, Charmin Hairston and Frank Joyner triumph in "Oh Doctor."

Two members of the juniors class enter the field of journalism as Willie Frances Smith and James Boyd become members of the "Maroon Wave" staff.

In athletics, the junior class is well represented. James Steen and Francis Simms are outstanding on the line while Walter Murray and Frank Joyner show brilliant form in the ball carrying department.

Lawton Kelly demonstrates his oratorical ability by winning the annual oratorical contest.

The Junior-Senior Prom, the most anticipated event of the year is the last scene in act three.

Act four, the climax of this great drama finds several new actors upon the stage. These are the conservative persons who finish high school in three years. They are Bennie Martin, Willie Lou Brooks, Howard Wilson, Abner Goodman, Lucy Summers and Price Freeman. The actors are now dignified and more determined in their efforts.

Frank Joyner is captain of the football team and aided by Francis Simms, Lawton Kelly, Charles Glenn, James Steen, Walter Murray and Marcellus Penn, leads the team through a successful season. Ruth Dunlap becomes "Miss Atkins High" as the senior dig deep and win a popularity contest. In basketball Francis Simms is the only representative.

Great contributions are made in drama as Marshall Hairston, Dwight Caldwell, Allen Holmes, Ann Martin and Charles Crumblin give thrilling performances.

In the Student Council Lawton Kelly serves as president and Nathaniel Wiseman is vice president.

As the play nears its ending each actor has the same goal—graduation. The curtain is closing on the Class of '50 but each member of the cast hopes that the class will serve as a source of inspiration and good spirit to all future classes of Atkins High School.

Class Prophecy

Listen! Lend an ear while the prophets speak to you! For the words which cometh from the lips of the prophets are revealing what is seen in the crystal ball and what you want to know about the future of the Class of '50. Behold, the prophets see many things concerning the future of our students.

Oh, why were we prophets? We wanted to refrain from saying the things that we know and see, but since we are prophets, we must tell everything that we see in our crystal ball.

As we gaze into our crystal ball, the future is as plain as day. We see moving in all directions, familiar faces. They are happy faces. We've seen these faces somewhere but we can't recall the place. Now we remember! They were once our classmates back in the years 1949-50 at our dear Alma Mater, Atkins High School. My, how they've changed. They are much, much better looking. They are some of the best citizens of the world, and all are successful. Are our eyes deceiving us? No, they aren't, for it's all seen here in our crystal ball. These young people have finally reached their goal—that of success.

Looking into our crystal ball, we see these young people engaged in many different professions. We see Lawton Kelly, Samuel Tucker, Ervin Williams, and Charles Glenn singing at Carnegie Hall. They are some of the world's greatest baritone singers.

We behold some chemists in some of the largest colleges in America. We look very, very hard and we recognize the faces of the well known chemists Joe Thompson, Jr., James Anderson and Nathan Simms.

Is our crystal ball playing tricks on us? Can it be true that Nathaniel Wiseman has taken over the place of Mr. J. A. Carter, our high school principal? Is it possible that Eleanor King has taken over Miss E. M. Stith's place as history teacher?

This is true. It's shown here in our crystal ball. Others who are teaching French, English, and mathematics at Atkins are David Faison, Grace Bush, Ruth Plowden, Ruby Toney, Doris Warren, Doris Gwyn, Dorothy Rice, and Eva Phelps. Margaret Watts, Rosa Mary Humble, Odessa Jackson, Hazel Bohannon, Annie Foster, and Anna Lois Clement are teaching in the Twin City's Elementary schools.

We see a big stage, a Broadway stage. Those curtains part and we see Charmin Hairston, Margaret Robinson, Paul Griffin taking leading roles in some of the popular stage productions of the year. The crystal ball is blurred. The names of the productions can't be seen.

The scene changes. Thurmond Ford, Howard Wilson, Langston Faison, Harold Hauser, Joseph Woodruff, and Lester Moss are our leading attorneys. Marjorie Morgan, James Boyd, Virginia Bradley, and Earl Wilson are well known musicians. Teachers at dear old Atkins are wearing beautiful clothes designed by Ruth Dunlap, Annie Boykins, Louise Barnes, Nell Carlton, Fostina Toney, Mary Wilson, Carnella Murphy, Mary Martin, Betty Walls, Lillie Ruth Hall, Artanzia Richardson, Ellise Mayse, and Juanita Belton.

Wait! Our crystal ball has grown dark. This can't be the end of my prophecy. It's just the beginning. The scene is a big and beautiful hospital. Two teachers at Atkins are to be operated on by some of the world's famous surgeons—Frank Joyner, Arneize Williams, Willie Frances Smith, and Freddie Bynum. Doctors are on the job too. They are Gerald Cardwell, Odell Broome, Francis Simms, Middie Glymph, Ernest Riley, and Edward Hunter.

Nurses who are to assist them are Maggie Cunningham, Dorothy Kirby, Geraldine Lucas, Lucille Moore, Annette Head, Edith Campbell, Lula Graham, Willie Mae Robinson, Willie Lou Brooks, Bertha Thompson, Annie Mae Johnson, Mary Caldwell, and Frances Moore.

Hark! We hear the clicking of typewriters. We can see Aurelia Carter, Delores Edwards, Arlethia Harris, Dorothy Caldwell, Nancy Caldwell, Hazel Coppedge, Lucy Summers, Mary Arnold, Mary Nelson, Bennie Martin, and Evelyn Howie as stenographers working in big business firms in New York City under the auspices of Charles Clumblin, Roosevelt Crowder, Charlie Hazel, and Marion Frazier, who also have photo shops, and what have you. The Senior Class of 1956 are wearing styles designed by the famous beauticians—Minnie Harris, Dorothy Wallace, Elmeta Dubose, Viola Holmes, Ethelyne Wilkes, Katherine Bradley, Hazel Gwyn, and Dorothy Grimes. Theodore Massey, Gertie Mack, Lillie Jackson, Waddell Fair, Naomi Williams, Rosella Morrison, Walter Murray, and Lucius Porter are physical ed. instructors in leading universities. Marshall Hairston is a well known band leader. Lois Ann Haley, Doris Cockeram, and Royal Abbitt are concert pianists. Hazel Rhynes and Lillie Hines are metso-sopranos.

The crystal ball changes again. We see lots of money in the crystal ball. To whom does all this money belong? We see millions and millions of dollars. Now we see the faces of the multi-millionaires to whom this money belong. They are Milton Speight, Ernest Williams, Richard Scales, Luther Dye, Payton Hairston, John Caldwell, McRay Roberts, Abner Gooden, and James Davis. Ulysses Davis, Lafayette Johnson, Albert Samuels, Deloris Solomon, Mildred Thornton, Verdell Epps, Howard Lawrence, Alva Ingram are famous as artists. Jarvis Webster, Thomas Jeffries, James Steen, Robert Blackman, Boston Belton, and Bright Benton are great educators. Geraldine Butler, Helen West, Dorothy Ingram, Thelma Davis, Louise Crawford, Elvin Davis, Ethel Upson, and Elizabeth Bratton are dieticians. Walter Ship is a great physicist at North Carolina State College. Doris Barber is modeling in Paris. Alvin Jackson, John Thompkins, James Thomas and James Ross are ministers. Their congregation is composed of the missionaries—Ruth Wilson, Anne Roseboro, Louise Crawford, and Alice Roseboro. Price Freeman is a dentist in the Twin City. Our great dancers are Sidney Simms, Bobby Lee Perry, Olemial Cox.

John Bruce, Allen Holmes, Alexander Thompson, Nathaniel Tucker, Benjamin Roseboro, Emmanuel Williams, James Wilson, Harold Winford, and Harold Wofford are professional painters and electricians.

The crystal ball has grown completely dark. This only means one thing—the prophecy has ended. All has been revealed. Surely only goodness, truth, kindness, and success shall follow these beloved members of the Class of 1950.

THE CAMELS

The Atkins High Camels, led by a group of seniors had a successful grid season. From the first call to practice until the last game, there was an everlasting desire to win as indicated by the season's record of 7 wins and 1 loss. The seniors who are leaving and those who have used their years of eligibility are to be congratulated. They are James Steen, Charles Glenn, Marcellus Penn, Walter Murray, James Webster, Lawton Kelly, and Frank Joyner. These graduating gridlers played an excellent game every Friday with the support of Edward McCoy, John McDougal, Francis Sims, and Jerry Crews as starters.

The Camels under the generalship of Frank Joyner won the Forsyth County Football Championship and finished second place in Western District of North Carolina Negro High School Athletic Association. James Webster and John McDougal were All State, with James Steen, Walt Murray, Charles Glenn making All-Western District.

Much success of the Camels was due to the able reserves in Aggie Sales, Paul Kelly, Herman Wilson, James Penn and Walter Little who saw considerable action and performed well. These boys will be the nucleus of the team for the ensuing year.

The coaching staff and entire squad appreciated the support given by the faculty, student body, and general public. The Camels tried to show and fulfilled the desire in every game, school spirit, sportsmanship and desire to win.

We were happy this year at Atkins to have an addition to coaching staff in person of Coach Delray Hartsfield of Tuskegee Institute, who did an excellent job.

Coach Charles Washington was well pleased with superb playing of the entire squad. He is running for State Championship next year, and in the back of his head, fears no one.

The season's record is as follows:

Atkins	26	T. C.	0
Atkins	19	Thomasville	0
Atkins	26	Carver	6
Atkins	7	High Point	0
Atkins	13	Gastonia	20
Atkins	20	W. Charlotte	6
Atkins	26	Burlington	18
Atkins	27	Dudley	0

BASKETBALL BOYS

First Row: Sims, Pennington, Webster, Lowery, Price. Second Row: Berry, Bryant, Vance, Hines, Penn, Mgr. Third Row: Harris, Young, Scales, Sligh, Coach Cary.

Basketball Boys

Led by Co-Captains Lowery and Webster, the Atkins Cagers defeated all opposition in the Western Conference and were seeded number two in the State finals at Raleigh. In this tournament we lost a hard fought game to E. E. Smith High School of Fayetteville in the finals after winning decisions over Goldsboro and Rocky Mount in early rounds of play. So, for the second successive year our boys have been able to fight their way to the finals of the State championship. We are no less proud of them for having lost because we know that our boys played their best for Atkins and were beaten by a better ball club. This squad molded itself into a pennant winner despite the loss of four varsity players from last season's championship team; their record has been a pleasant and unexpected surprise to all of us who knew the replacements needed to make the squad a contender for the championship. We had no individual players and all were outstanding during the season, displaying more team-play and spirit than probably any other team in the school's history. Unmindful of awards and trophies, the squad had only one thought as it entered each game—to outplay and outscore their opponents—an objective which they attained in 19 out of 23 games, including 6 tournament games. In four years under Coach Cary the basketball squads have a record of 64 victories against 14 losses in high school competition. The entire student body and the faculty of Atkins High salute the 1950 basketball squad for another fine and successful year on the hardwood and thank them for bringing more laurels in athletics to our school.

The Block "A" Club represents the athletes at Atkins High who have earned the varsity letter in football or basketball or both. The boys are very proud of their organization and are careful to see that no outsider enjoys the advantages that have been awarded only to those boys who have spent months of hard practice in all kinds of weather and have taken the bodily punishment on the gridiron and in the gym in order to earn the coveted varsity letter. The Club is an inspiration to the many boys in our school who desire to be associated with the athletes. We point with pride to these boys, for they have brought honor and praise to Atkins, not only through victory but also in the manner in which they have conducted themselves at home and on foreign fields. It is not unusual for us to receive complimentary letters from our opponents, lauding the excellent sportsmanship exhibited by the athletes of Atkins High School. We feel that our athletes are learning the basic requirements for a successful adult life.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL SQUAD

First Row: M. Morgan (Guard), C. Cunningham (Guard), L. Jackson (Forward), R. Morrison (G.-Captain), N. Williams (Forward), A. Benton (Forward), Miss Stith, (Coach). Second Row: S. Gaither (Manager), S. Gregory (Guard), I. Hughes (Guard), R. Caviness (Forward), M. Cook (Guard), G. Mack (Forward). Third Row: B. Crump (Forward), A. Spillman (Forward), and M. Williams (Guard).

WHO'S WHO ON THE GIRLS' VARSITY TEAM

Playing only ten games this season, the squad ended a very successful season piloted by their resourceful captain, Roselle Morrison, a veteran of three years. Carrie Cunningham, a newcomer, proved very effective on the backboards, along with her teammate, Marjorie Morgan.

High scorer for this season was Naomi (Bobo) Williams with Annie Benton running a close second.
